

ERROR OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION IN CONNECTION WITH FUNDS DELIVERED
AUGUST, 1965, AND AMOUNT TO BE MADE AVAIL-ABLE TO THE "NEW WORLD REVIEW"

In discussions held in early November, 1965, in Moscow, USSR, with Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), and his assistant, Igor Mikhailov, and in a discussion with Vladimir (last name unknown) of the Security Branch, Central Committee, CPSU, these individuals noted that because of a translation error on their part, an incorrect oral message had been given to the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) on August 26, 1965. This message from the CPSU was transmitted to the CP, USA during a personal contact in New York when $300,000 had been turned over to the Party. The oral message transmitted at the time noted that "thirty thousand of this money was for Jessica Smith of the 'New World Review.'" Actually, however, they noted the message should have been that fifteen thousand of this money was for Jessica and that the total now provided to her in 1965 was $30,000.

While all of the above-noted individuals acknowledged that the error was theirs, based on translation problems and not an error of the CP, USA, they could not make restitution to the CP, USA of this $15,000. Accordingly, they inquired if the money had already been transmitted to Jessica Smith and if so the Party here should make every effort to get it back from her. If the money had not been totally delivered, then it should be considered as part of CP, USA funds and not Jessica's money.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF GREAT BRITAIN
RELATIONS WITH OTHER COMMUNIST
PARTIES

During November, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

During the period of October 21-23, 1965, there was held in Prague, Czechoslovakia, a symposium marking the 30th Anniversary of the 7th Congress of the Communist International. This symposium, sponsored jointly by the "World Marxist Review" ("WMR"), official theoretical organ of the international communist movement, and the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia (CPCZ), was attended by representatives of 39 Communist Parties plus other unofficial individual representatives. Notable by its absence was a delegation from the Communist Party of Great Britain (CPGB). It was learned from a representative of the "WMR" that the CPGB had been invited but had chosen not to send a delegation. In addition the CPGB had contacted John Gibbons, a former American now residing in Czechoslovakia who represents the CPGB on the Editorial Board of the "WMR", and specifically told him not to attend the symposium. It was the prevailing opinion that this is a further indication that the CPGB does not desire to associate itself with international communist meetings of any type which might be construed as signifying their approval of whatever line may be expressed by the meeting relative to the present split in the world communist movement. This opinion has been re-enforced by the action recently taken by the CPGB in communicating to the other Communist Parties of the world that it does not want representatives, or fraternal delegations, to attend the forthcoming 29th Congress of the CPGB to be held November 27-30, 1965.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"Dear Comrade Gus Hall on behalf of CPSU Central Committee thank you wholeheartedly for your warm greeting in connection with the 48 anniversary of great October socialist revolution and for appreciation of USSR peoples achievements in building up of Communism and its role in development of world revolutionary process. With great interest we were acquainted with your opinion on present situation in international CP movement. It is absolutely right that consistent line unity is fully justified by practice and brings apparent positive results. We understand your anxiety in connection with the serious damage done to our movement by splitter line of Chinese leaders. DISCUSSIONS AT "WORLD MARXIST REVIEW,"
PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, OCTOBER-NOVEMBER,

During late October, 1965, it was learned that Claude Lightfoot, Vice Chairman of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), met in Prague, Czechoslovakia, with G. P. Frantzov, Editor-in-Chief of the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the international communist movement. Together, these two worked out the agenda of subjects to be considered for discussion at the Commission on Problems of Developed Capitalist Countries during 1966. Such a conference was held in Prague from March 16-18, 1965, and another is planned for 1966 although no definite date has been set as yet. An understanding was reached between Lightfoot and Frantzov that when Lightfoot returned to the United States and discussed this agenda with the CP, USA leaders, amendments would be submitted. Set forth below is the agenda referred to above:

FOR DISCUSSION AT THE COMMISSION ON PROBLEMS OF DEVELOPED CAPITALIST COUNTRIES

Draft of subject plan for 1966

1. Modern state-monopoly capitalism and the labour movement.

The economic trends and contradictions of state-monopoly capitalism (monopoly concentration, scientific and technological revolution, automation, state regulation and planning).

The position of the working class (modern forms and methods of exploitation, new forms of consumption, "incomes policy", inflation, etc.)

Technological progress and scientific and technical cadres (their position and role in the struggle of the masses).

The position of the peasantry and other middle sections.

2. The struggle for democracy and socialism.

Political changes in the capitalist countries.

The problems of defense, extension and renovation of democracy.

The struggle against fascist regimes (in Spain and Portugal) against reactionary and authoritarian trends (in Greece, West Germany and other countries).

The labour movement and the racial problem (the USA, Britain, etc.).

3. The problems of unity of the working class and the progressive forces.

The situation in the Social Democratic movement and relations between Communists and Social Democracy.

Left Socialist forces and their role in the labour movement.

The development of united actions with the Catholic masses and organizations.

4. Problems of the struggle for peace, security and disarmament.

The ways and means of strengthening European security.

The struggle of the working people against aggressive wars and for disarmament.

More on economic cycles and future.

Liberation movement and newly independent countries.

The October, 1965, issue of the "World Marxist Review" contained a section entitled "The United States of America Today," including articles by Gus Hall, Henry Winston, Claude Lightfoot, Hyman Lumer, and Victor Perlo. Frantzov expressed general satisfaction with these articles but did indicate that he thought they were somewhat general in nature. The "World Marxist Review" presently plans to devote a substantial portion of two issues in 1966 to the United States, and it is desired that articles for these two additional issues deal with more specific problems in the United States. Frantzov was told that the October, 1965, issue concerning the United States had been well received in the United States and that as a result of this issue many new subscriptions to the "World Marxist Review" have been obtained.

Victor Perlo, an article by whom appears in the October, 1963, issue, was approached directly in the past relative to preparing material to appear in the "World Marxist Review." Frantzov was advised that this was contrary to the wishes of the CP, USA. Frantzov agreed that in the future he will consult Hyman Lumer of the CP, USA, the Editor of "Political Affairs," to determine whether it is all right with the CP, USA before contacting Perlo for articles to appear in the "World Marxist Review."

(First name unknown) Sharif, Russian member of the staff of the "World Marxist Review," had a request to make of the CP, USA. He indicated that he needed a part for a Philips "Stereo" Tape Recorder used by the "World Marxist Review." Sharif noted that this part had been previously requested by him from the Czechs but he had been unable to obtain the correct part. The tape recorder bears Model #EL 35FY and Sharif stated that he needed a transistor numbered OCF 5 which regulates the volume.

Frantzov requested that the CP, USA make available to the "World Marxist Review" all of the books and publications which have been put out by the American Institute for Marxist Studies.

Both of the above requests will be honored by the CP, USA.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO

During early November, 1965, conversations were held in Moscow, USSR, which involved Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU). During these conversations, Mostovets remarked that at the 13th Congress of the Communist Party (CP) of Chile (which he had attended), Juan Santos Rivera of the CP of Puerto Rico had gotten up and remarked that the only ones who were helping his Party were the CP, USA and Cuba. It was apparent from the manner in which the foregoing was related that neither Mostovets nor the Russians were very happy with Rivera's comment.

PREPARATION OF BIOGRAPHIES BY COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION ON LEADING MEMBERS OF WORLD COMMUNIST AND WORKERS
PARTIES

In preparation for the 50th Anniversary of the October Revolution, which will be held two years hence, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) now has some of its people busy preparing biographies on important past leaders of the Communist and Workers Parties throughout the world. They plan to select two such people from each Party, write biographies on them, and publish these biographies in conjunction with this 50th Anniversary celebration. In addition to these biographies, they will also select several other important figures who have led the Parties on whom they will write biographies but these will be published sometime prior to the 50th Anniversary celebration. At the present time, four past CP, USA members have been selected in connection with the preparation of these biographies and these are:

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER
EUGENE DENNIS
ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN
BENJAMIN DAVIS

In order to prepare the above-noted biographies, the CPSU has requested that it be furnished by the CP, USA with available material from television, the press, film, etc., which can be utilized in connection with background. Currently heading up the work on these biographies of CP, USA leaders is LEONID CHERNOV, an individual employed by the International Department, Central Committee, CPSU. CHERNOV is also being assisted on this project by ALEKSEI GRECHUKHIN, a former employee of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU, who is now a professor in one of the CPSU higher Party schools. The biography on which GRECHUKHIN is working deals with either FOSTER or FLYNN, individuals with whom GRECHUKHIN had at one time been acquainted.

A source which has furnished reliable information in the past has supplied the following data regarding individuals holding responsible positions in the Soviet Union:

BORIS N. PONOMAREV

Ponomarev is a member of the Secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CC, CPSU). He has assumed a role in the leadership of the CPSU in which he appears to be working directly under Mikhail Suslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the CC, CPSU. Thus he appears to have resumed the position he held under O. V. Kuusinen, former member of the Presidium and Secretary of the CC, CPSU, prior to Kuusinen's death.

NIKOLAI V. MOSTOVETS

REC-24 / 100-428091-5242

Mostovets is the Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, CC, CPSU. In early November, 1965, Mostovets was making plans for a trip to the United States. Mostovets had originally planned to travel to the United States in late October or early November, 1964, but this trip was postponed due to the unrest in the Soviet Union following the removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev from his positions of leadership in the Soviet Union in early October, 1964.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA DELEGATION TO SOVIET UNION FOR NOVEMBER SEVENTH

In discussions with representatives of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) in early November, 1965, it was learned that as of November 6, 1965, fourteen of the fifteen individuals who were to comprise the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) delegation for November 7th had arrived in Moscow, USSR. The only individual who had not arrived as of that time was Ralph Nelson. Subsequently, it was learned that Nelson did not arrive in Moscow in time for the November 7th celebration but as of November 13, 1965, was then en route to the USSR. The majority of the individuals comprising this November 7th delegation had arrived in the Soviet Union on November 4, 1965. On November 6, 1965, this delegation was joined by Claude Lightfoot, a leading functionary of the CP of Illinois, and his wife, Joyce, who were already then in the Soviet Union and had just returned from a visit to Leningrad on that date.

On November 7, 1965, the CP, USA delegation, which now included Claude Lightfoot and his wife, was to participate in the holiday celebration and then on November 10, 1965, depart for a trip to Tashkent, Uzbek Soviet Socialist Republic. The delegation, including the Lightfoots, was going to Tashkent because Claude Lightfoot had requested this trip in order that he might gather material in preparation for a book he is writing on the nationalities question. Following the trip to Tashkent, the delegation would return to Moscow and then, without the Lightfoots, proceed to Leningrad and thereafter to Tallinn, Estonian Soviet Socialist Republic.

It was anticipated that this travel in the Soviet Union would probably be concluded around December 1, 1965, and then the majority of this delegation would then return to the United States. However, some of the individuals in this delegation, namely Tommy Dennis, Ben Levine, and Ralph Nelson, had previously been scheduled to proceed to the German Democratic Republic (GDR) in the latter part of November, 1965, to present lectures at a Socialist Unity Party of Germany school. At this school Dennis was to lecture on civil rights in the United States; Levine was to lecture on United States culture; and, Nelson was to lecture on trade union activities in the United States.

However, since their travel in the Soviet Union made it impossible to meet the late November schedule, a CP, USA representative in early November, 1965, directed a communication to the Central Committee of the Socialist Unity Party of Germany notifying them that Dennis, Levine, and Nelson would be delayed in the Soviet Union and asked if an early December date for these lectures in the GDR would be acceptable. Acting on this communication, which was sent to the Socialist Unity Party of Germany, Dennis, Levine and their wives, together with Nelson, were contemplating traveling to the GDR in early December, 1965, and, therefore, would not be returning with the rest of the United States delegation.

While there was no actual contact with the CP, USA November 7th delegation in the Soviet Union and none of these individuals were actually seen in Moscow, it is known that the following were to have composed this fifteen-member delegation:

ACTIVITIES IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND SOVIET UNION OF CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, OCTOBER -
NOVEMBER, 1965

122
USSR

On October 22, 1965, Claude Lightfoot, leading functionary of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois and Chairman of the CP, USA National Negro Commission, arrived in Prague, Czechoslovakia, with his wife Joyce and with Joyce Gourfain, also of Chicago, Illinois. Lightfoot had come to Prague for the purpose of attending a conference being jointly sponsored by the "World Marxist Review" and the CP of Czechoslovakia in celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the Seventh Congress of the Communist International.
While Lightfoot arrived late for the meeting, he did participate in a portion of the conference proceedings on October 22, 1965, and in all of the sessions held on October 23, 1965.
He also attended a reception held October 22, 1965, by Antonin Novotny, First Secretary, CP of Czechoslovakia, which took place at the Presidential Palace in Prague. On October 23, 1965, Lightfoot participated in the conference by delivering a major report. Neither Joyce Lightfoot nor Joyce Gourfain participated with Claude Lightfoot in any of his activities in connection with the above-noted conference.

0351

Following his participation in the joint conference of the "World Marxist Review" and the CP of Czechoslovakia, Lightfoot and his wife, together with Joyce Gourfain, spent several additional days in Czechoslovakia. During this period, Lightfoot, himself, met with representatives of the "World Marxist Review" and also was in contact with representatives of the CP of Czechoslovakia. He also took, in the company of his wife and Joyce Gourfain, several tours or trips within the City of Prague.

During the latter part of October, 1965, the Lightfoots and Joyce Gourfain proceeded by air to Moscow, USSR.
Upon their arrival in Moscow, the Lightfoots were taken to the Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union Hotel where they were assigned room 407. Joyce Gourfain, whom Lightfoot had insisted be granted a visa to visit the Soviet Union, was separated from the Lightfoots and provided a room without bath at the Metropole Hotel, a tourist hotel in Moscow. Joyce Gourfain was not given an official Party reception and for her it was arranged that she would take a tourist trip of the Soviet Union while she was in the country.

ENCLOSURE

During early November, 1965, Lightfoot met with representatives of the International Department, Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union, and on November 2, 1965, had a meeting with Mikhail Suslov, a Secretary, Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union. During these meetings with representatives of the CP of the Soviet Union it was arranged that while in the Soviet Union Claude Lightfoot would enter one of their hospitals for examination and possible treatment. Such hospitalization would last for approximately one week and they would attempt to at this time look into an old problem of Lightfoot regarding a bleeding kidney. If nothing serious developed during this week of hospitalization, the Russians planned to have him released from the hospital around November 24 or 25, 1965, at which time he would return to the United States.

On November 4, 1965, a trip was arranged for Lightfoot and his wife and they left Moscow on that date for Leningrad with plans to return to Moscow on the evening of November 6, 1965, so that they might participate in a public rally that evening in connection with the November 7th celebration. On November 7, 1965, and for the next several days Lightfoot participated in the November 7th festivities and then on November 10, 1965, he planned to go to Tashkent for a period and then return to Moscow for his hospitalization.

VICTOR PERLO

As of October, 1965, it was learned that Victor Perlo, a leading Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) writer in the field of economics, was then a visitor in Moscow, USSR. At the time Perlo was not traveling in Party circles in Moscow but had been honored at at least one banquet which had been hold for him by Russian citizens engaged in the same field of endeavor.

RUSSIAN DESIRE TO PRINT BOOK
BY GUS HALL

During November, 1965, it was learned that members of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), met in Moscow, USSR, during early November, 1965, with a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA). They advised that it is the desire of the CPSU to publish a book by Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA. It was requested that Hall prepare a collection of his pamphlets and write an introduction so that this collection can be published in book form.

When this information was communicated to Hall, he expressed an interest in the project. He also asked whether it would be permitted by the Russians for him to include some chapters on the CP of China and the People's Republic of China. It was decided that Hall would go ahead and include such chapters and transmit the collection to the CPSU and let them decide what they would do with them.

CZECH ADS FOR PRAGA PRESS, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

During early November, 1965, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) who was then traveling in Prague, Czechoslovakia, discussed with (first name unknown) Havalchuk (phonetic), a member of the International Department, Central Committee, CP of Czechoslovakia, the matter of Praga Press, Chicago, Illinois. Praga Press is in very bad condition financially and is about to go bankrupt. A request was made that the Czech Government, through some of its agencies, take advertisements in Praga Press publications and in this way furnish aid in an indirect fashion. Havalchuk advised that this matter had been discussed with the International Department previously by James West, a member of the National Board of the CP, USA, when West was in Czechoslovakia. It was agreed that the Czech Government will give advertisements and printing jobs to Praga Press as a form of aid through their Foreign Institute for Relations with Czechs and Slovaks Abroad.

PROPOSED DEPARTMENT IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST PARTY RELATIONS

A source which has supplied reliable information in the past has advised that the top leadership of the Communist Party, USA, has been furnished the following comments made by a leading official of the Institute for World Economy and International Relations, Soviet Academy of Sciences, Moscow, Russia, in early November, 1965:

New Special Department

During early November, 1965, the Presidium of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union decided to set up a new special department within the Communist Party of the Soviet Union for the purpose of maintaining closer ties with every Communist and Workers Party throughout the world. This proposed special department would endeavor to establish and improve relations on a party-to-party basis between the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and other Communist Parties as well as relations of all parties to each other. This special department could call Communist Party international conferences to discuss Party problems and form the basis for a future international organization which could eventually become another Communist International. The Communist Party of the Soviet Union would actually view this special department as a miniature Communist International.

At the recent Moscow celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the 7th Congress of the Communist International, Timofeev was chosen to make an important speech on the same platform with Boris N. Ponomarev, a Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Timofeev was informed in an unofficial manner about this new special department and his possible selection to direct it by Mikhail Suslov, a member of the Presidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

Possible Obstacle

One possible obstacle to Timofeev's selection for this important position [redacted] Eugene Dennis, deceased former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, [redacted] Peggy Dennis, and [redacted] both reside in the United States. Peggy Dennis, who is employed by the "People's World," a west coast communist newspaper, and who is now on a tour of Eastern European socialist countries, visited Timofeev in the Soviet Union in November 1965. On this occasion, Timofeev attempted to persuade [redacted] to remain in the Soviet Union or one of the socialist countries because it is his understanding the leadership of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union would feel better if she lived nearby. If this cannot be done, Timofeev feels that he will be considered an alien by the Soviet leadership despite his fitness for the position.

b7c

Timofeev does not desire this matter be raised with the Communist Party, USA, at this time, but indicated a desire [redacted] to go to work for the Women's International Democratic Federation in East Berlin or some other international peace organization. After a period of about eight months, if she is willing, the question of arranging [redacted] permanent residence abroad could be raised officially with the Communist Party, USA, leadership.

On 11/26/65, an arrangement had been made between NY 694-S* and the subject for the subject to cover a signal at 7:05 PM at a telephone booth located at the entrance to Cody's Pharmacy, Inc., 1252 Lexington Ave., NYC, N.Y.

At approximately 6:00 PM an off-the-street observation post was put into operation in order to overlook the location of this telephone booth. At 7:03 PM EMILIYA A. TALANOVA, wife of the subject, and NINA M. AVDEYEVA, wife of VLADIMIR D. AVDEYEV, were observed in front of the aforementioned drug store and appeared to be looking in the window. At 7:08 PM the two departed the vicinity of the drug store and walked north on Lexington Ave.

A review of the logs maintained by the observation post overlooking the SMUN reflects that TALANOVA and AVDEYEVA departed the SMUN together at 5:45 PM and were observed re-entering there at 7:38 PM.

On previous occasions, when TALANOV and AVDEYEV were observed covering similar type signals, they were accompanied at certain times by their wives. The NYO feels that coverage of the signals by two wives of KGB employees is a most rare, if not the only, occasion of such an incident.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THE SOVIET UNION

A source, which has supplied reliable information in the past, has advised that during November, 1965, a leading official of the Soviet Academy of Science in Moscow, Russia, made the following comments concerning the internal affairs of the Soviet Union.

There is a struggle for power currently taking place within the Soviet Union and the question of leadership may not be resolved until the 23rd Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union is held in the Spring of 1966.

At the present time, the dominant group is led by Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, and includes such leading Soviet officials as Alexei N. Kosygin, Anastas I. Mikoyan and Nikolai V. Podgorny. This group of "old timers" has attracted a few of the younger Soviet leaders such as Dimitri S. Polyansky and Kiril T. Mazurov. Recent additions to this group include Soviet leaders Aleksandr N. Shelepin and Mikhail Suslov. Suslov is regarded as a "smart politician" who has now become a "liberal" for political reasons.

This dominant group has "beaten back" the bid for greater power by a more ambitious younger group which had advocated a return to the "hard line pro-Stalinist policies." The severe adverse reaction among leading Soviet officials and the Soviet masses to the talk of a return to the "old days" under Stalin, has enabled Brezhnev to strengthen his position. As a result, Brezhnev's group is trying to pacify the Soviet people who are chafing under the results of a crop failure caused by bad weather. The mood of the Soviet people, especially the young people, is accurately

While on his recent mission to the Soviet Union, CG 5824-S* met with Timur Timofeev, an official of the Soviet Academy of Science. Timofeev, [redacted] deceased Communist Party, USA, General Secretary Eugene Dennis, made the following comments concerning the internal affairs of the Soviet Union.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION, HOTEL, MOSCOW, USSR

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during mid-November, 1965, advised as follows:

The Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), maintains in Moscow, USSR, a relatively new and modern hotel known as the Central Committee Hotel for the housing of leading Communist or Workers Party representatives from throughout the world who are in that country for official consultations with or guests of the CPSU. The hotel is a multistoried building complete with all necessary service establishments including a good restaurant.

While most of the guests staying at the Central Committee Hotel are there under relatively open conditions, the hotel does house from time to time a number of guests who are in the country covertly and under false identities. In the latter case, the hotel can adequately take care of any or all needs of such individuals. In such cases everything, including food, is normally brought to the individual's private room. When persons from the CPSU desire to meet with these covert guests for consultation, these officials are brought to the hotel where meetings can be held with utmost security in one of its various rooms. If the situation is such that the guests must leave the hotel, for example to hold meetings with top CPSU leaders such as a Secretary of the Central Committee, service elevators and basement exits are available and utilized which enable such persons to leave the hotel building unseen.

At the present time one of the administrators of the Central Committee Hotel is one Edward (last name unknown). Since the post he holds is one of responsibility, he is probably a member of the Central Committee, CPSU. Edward (last name unknown) speaks perfect Chinese but has rather limited ability with the English language, but he is now undertaking extensive study of this language. His hobby is collecting postage stamps.

On a daily basis major newspapers are brought to the hotel together with translations by a uniformed security representative of the Central Committee. This material is made available for the benefit of the hotel guests and when it is delivered to the hotel, it is signed for by the hotel administrator.

In the past it had been possible to locate a guest residing in the hotel by a call to the central switchboard and guest register it maintained but this is no longer possible. At the present time telephone numbers and names of guests are no longer obtainable through a central switchboard and in order to talk to anyone in the hotel, you must possess beforehand a telephone number and directly dial that individual's room. In this connection, for example, if you are attempting to contact a guest in room 407 of the hotel, you would dial directly the number 44-78-47 or if you desired to contact a guest in room 517, you would dial directly the number 44-78-97. Food as well as service in the hotel is very good although here there also has been a definite cutback in the past year or so. In the past, the hotel restaurant served a meal consisting of many courses and extremely large quantities of food. Today, the number of courses and the quantity of food available at meals, while greatly sufficient, has been cutback.

Subject: COMMUNIST PARTY OF GREAT BRITAIN

Sources which have supplied reliable information in the past have furnished the following regarding the Communist Party of Great Britain (CPGB).

The CPGB did not send a delegation to the symposium marking the 30th Anniversary of the 7th Congress of the Communist International held October 21-23, 1965, in Prague, Czechoslovakia, although invited to participate. In addition, the CPGB contacted its representative on the Editorial Board of the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the international communist movement published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and instructed him not to attend the symposium. The prevailing opinion among the delegations at the symposium was that this is a further indication that the CPGB does not desire to associate itself with international communist meetings of any type which might be construed as signifying approval of whatever line may be expressed by the meeting relative to the present split in the international communist movement.

This opinion has been reinforced as a result of the communication sent by the CPGB to other communist parties which stated the CPGB did not want representatives or fraternal delegations to attend the 29th Congress of the CPGB which was scheduled for November 27-30, 1965.

Because of the sensitive nature of the sources which furnished this information, this communication has been classified "Top Secret."

TRANSLATION FROM RUSSIAN

ANNUAL REPORT OF FBI DIRECTOR HOOVER

On October 19, 1965, in Washington, was published the annual report of the Director of the FBI, Hoover, which speaks of the efforts of the FBI in the struggle against crime and "subversive activities." A special section of the report is devoted to prosecution of the Communist Party, U. S. A. and to a "threat from the outside."

Specifically, it is stated in a preface to the report:

"Activities of various subversive elements in the United States continued to test the FBI in the field of internal security..."

"The Communist Party, U. S. A., during ^{the} fiscal year 1965, carried on with new energy its activities in all fields, devoting special attention to sharp attacks upon the American foreign policy, infiltration of the civil rights movement, and recruitment of new members among youth. The FBI continued to follow all types of Party's activities and inform the appropriate officials about its plans and programs. The FBI also attentively followed the activities of numerous groups of the communist front."

It is said in the "Counterintelligence Activities" section:

"One of the important tasks of the FBI in the field of internal security is to inform the appropriate officials of plans and activities of the internal enemies of our country. The disseminated data provides basis for the adoption of effective countermeasures and often influences the country's policy with regard to other governments. With the aid of its counterintelligence activities, the FBI is trying to discover individuals acting against the United States, to determine their aims, and to make their activities ineffective. Such operations are basically of preventive nature and cannot be judged on the basis of convictions' data or other statistics.

ENCLOSURE

"President's directive of September 6, 1939, places upon the FBI the chief responsibility for insuring the internal security of the United States. This task includes not only comparison and dissemination of intelligence data, but also the investigation of espionage, acts of sabotage, subversive activities, and other related activities. These functions do not extend to the territory of foreign powers.

"Communist Activities

"During the fiscal year, 1965, an optimistic Communist Party, U. S. A. turned to more open activities in an attempt to strengthen its influence and to help put its programs into practice. With a new energy, it unfolded activities in all fields, devoting particular attention to sharp attacks upon American foreign policy, infiltration of the civil rights movement and recruitment of new members among youth.

"Although this Party loudly proclaims its independence from foreign control, all its actions clearly show that it is loyal only to the Soviet Union and that it is bound by an absolute obligation to support the world communist movement. A sufficiently clear proof of this was the reaction of Party leaders to a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States of June 22, 1964, which held unconstitutional the passport section of the Internal Security Act of 1950, prohibiting all members of the Communist Party, U. S. A. from applying for an American passport or using an American passport. As soon as, according to this court ruling, they were able to obtain passports, many Party leaders made trips to the Soviet Union, where they were feted and cultivated, in preparation for new attacks upon their native land.

"Traditional actions of the Communist Party against every aspect of American foreign policy directed against international communism, reached new heights when it developed a broad campaign against the obligations of our country in Vietnam and in the Dominican Republic. Denouncing American actions in South Vietnam as "cruel" and "barbaric," the Party instructed its members to collaborate with all the protesting groups in order to intensify their activities and weaken the Government's position. The Party is purposefully striving to use in its own aims various demonstrations against American intervention in Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

"The present wave of social unrest in the United States substantially encourages communists. They regard this situation as favorable to their activities and are constantly trying to utilize all sorts of dissension. Almost any activity connected with the struggle for civil rights, be it a voter registration, a demonstration, march or picketing, attract communists in some measure.

"Disorders which broke out in the Harlem section of the City of New York in July, 1964, may serve as a striking example of this. The Progressive Labor Movement (later renamed the Progressive Labor Party), a dissenting and very militant group which broke away from the Communist Party, U. S. A., tried to protract these demonstrations, deliberately inciting the initiators of disorders. Representatives of this group disseminated provocation literature and delivered fervent denunciation speeches which noticeably increased the tension in the area of disorders.

"Legitimate organizations struggling for civil rights, as a rule, successfully excluded communists, although some organizations received secret advice from communists and even accepted them as their members. The Communist Party is dissatisfied with this situation and is unswervingly striving to infiltrate the civil rights movement on all levels. The FBI does not investigate the legitimate activities of groups fighting for the civil rights but, from the intelligence point of view, it is interested in the question of the scale of a possible communist infiltration.

"The academic year 1964-65, was a year of energetic activities of communist leaders in all sections of our country, when the Party activated its attempts to attract youth into its ranks with the aid of public appearances in colleges and universities. The Party leaders, encouraged by earlier successes, appeared 56 times during this period and were heard, in all, by 37,000 students. This concentration of efforts upon public appearances among students of the institutions of higher learning aimed at achieving the recognition of the Party as a legitimate political organization, establishing an aura of respectability around the Party and dissemination of the communist propaganda. The leaders of the Communist Party also appeared as guests on numerous radio and television broadcasts.

Another important weapon which the Communist Party used against youth were DuBois Clubs. This youth organization, taking its cues from the Communist Party, was founded in June, 1964, at a congress in San Francisco, California, dominated and controlled by communists. Its basic purpose is the spread of Marxism-Leninism. Marxists consider that these clubs, the centers of which are located in colleges and universities, are a very promising means of attracting youth.

"Legal Prosecutions

"In June, 1961, the Supreme Court of the United States agreed with conclusions of the Subversive Activities Control Board to the effect that the Communist Party, U. S. A. is under the direction and control of the Soviet Union. The order for the Party to register, as required by the Internal Security Act of 1950, was openly challenged, as a result of which the Government instituted a legal prosecution. On December 17, 1962, the District Court of the United States in Washington, D. C., found the Party guilty on 12 counts of the indictment, for its refusal to register, and a maximum fine in the sum of $120,000 was imposed upon it.

"On December 17, 1963, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia reversed this decision, stating that the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution gives legal justification to Party workers who refused to register, inasmuch as it provides that everyone has the right not to testify against himself. This court ruled further that the Government may reopen the case on condition that it finds a "volunteer" who would express readiness to carry out the registration if the Party authorizes him to do it. In the contrary case, the Government must withdraw its indictment. The Supreme Court refused to review this decision.

"On February 24, 1965, the Government submitted to the Federal Grand Jury in Washington, D. C., the data showing that the Communist Party, beginning with February 12, 1965, knew that there was such a person who was ready to sign the registration form and statement. On February 25, 1965, a new indictment was submitted. It was consolidated with the former indictment against the Party and the trial was set for the end of 1965.

"By June 30, 1965, the Department of Justice applied to the Subversive Activities Control Board with a request to order 44 national and district leaders of the Communist Party, U. S. A. to register as members of the Party, as demanded by the appropriate section of the Internal Security Act of 1950. All these cases were examined and, on the basis of data and testimony of witnesses submitted by the FBI, this Board issued orders on registration involving 37 defendants; all of them filed an appeal. On April 23, 1964, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, in a decision concerning both these cases examined jointly, supported the orders on registration but did not examine the constitutional questions involved. The Supreme Court agreed to examine this decision once more and the hearing on the question was scheduled for the fall of 1965.

"In September 1963, six officials of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers were convicted on a violation of the Labor Relations Act of 1947, on a charge that they conspired with the purpose of deceiving the Government by illegally obtaining the help of the National Labor Relations Board through presenting a false sworn written statement to the effect that they were not communists. They were sentenced to three years of imprisonment and a fine in the sum of $2,000 each. The court prosecution began in November, 1956, and before sentences were brought out, their cases were repeatedly reviewed. The U. S. Court of Appeals confirmed these sentences on April 26, 1965.

"On September 14, 1959, the section of the Labor Relations Act of 1947, which required that labor union leaders to submit to the National Labor Relations Board sworn written statements to the effect that they were not communists, was repealed and the statute of limitations excluded all the prosecutions based upon this section, beginning with September 15, 1964.

"As a result of FBI investigations, the Federal Grand Jury in Brooklyn, N. Y., brought out indictments on September 27, 1963, and September 22, 1964, against 11 persons, charging that they conspired for the purpose of violating restrictions prohibiting trips to Cuba without a passport with an appropriate notation. The prosecution of these cases was halted in the expectation of a ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court on the question involving a case of obtaining of a passport with an appropriate notation permitting a trip to Cuba. On May 3, 1965, the Supreme Court confirmed the right of the Government to restrict trips to Cuba and, at the end of a fiscal year, the above-mentioned cases were waiting for an examination.

"Organizations of the Communist Front

"Practically everything of a social or economic significance in the United States attracts ^{the} interest of the Communist Party as a means for achieving its ends. This Party is unswervingly striving to propagandize its programs with the aid of existing front organizations or by means of creating new organizations of this type. It portrays itself as a champion of rights of Negroes and other minority groups, asserting, that their interests are its interests. Actually, the Party does not care about the interests of these groups in a real sense but only expects to use them in order to spread its own influence. It constantly strives to penetrate nonsubversive, legitimate, organizations. Communists strive to seize control of the leadership of these groups with the aim of compelling them to carry out the Party line without openly identifying themselves with communism.

"The FBI investigates recently created, known or suspected, communist front organizations, in order to determine their true character and to establish whether their activities are subject to the jurisdiction of the FBI. Investigating the attempts of communists to infiltrate these organizations, the FBI is interested only in possible communist infiltration and not in the legitimate activities of these groups. The information obtained is transmitted to the Department of Justice for a decision of the question of instituting the legal prosecutions in accordance with the Executive Order No. 10450 and the Internal Security Act of 1950.

"Communism in the Caribbean Region, 1965"

"Unremitting efforts of the Soviet Union, communist China and the Castro Government on Cuba, for arousing unrest and subversive activities in the entire Caribbean region, require that the FBI, using sources in the United States, carry out a broad surveillance of activities in this entire region. The uprising in the Dominican Republic which broke out in April, 1965, stressed the great importance of a good intelligence service when a strong communist influence upon this uprising created a threat of appearance in the Caribbean region of one more communist government. The FBI systematically submitted information of high quality on the Dominican Republic and other important regions of Latin America to the appropriate officials, in order that they could determine a policy and adopt the necessary measures.

"Although open activities of pro-Castro organizations have slackened, the Cuban Government continued its efforts to land intelligence agents in the United States. This factor, along with close connections between Cuba and the Soviet Union, compels the FBI to keep constantly vigilant. This is equally true with regard to communist China, a country which represents a serious long-term threat to the security of the United States. The expanding activities of Chinese communists throughout the Western Hemisphere demand close survey over this entire region.

"Nationalist Activities

"The FBI devotes particular attention to a number of Puerto Rican nationalist groups which are clamoring for independence for Puerto Rico by any means, including violence. Members of these organizations, many of whom are supporters of a Cuban-style communism, resorted to acts of violence in the past, although measures quickly adopted by the FBI and local authorities in Puerto Rico prevented such activities to a considerable degree.

"At the end of the fiscal year, the FBI investigated the activities in the United States of a number of nationalist Negro groups which speak against whites and actively incite racial hatred. Included here are such organizations as the "Nation of Islam" which is often called "Black Muslims," the "Muslim Mosque," the "Revolutionary Action Movement" and the "Black Liberation Front." All these organizations create serious threat of violence, the fact testified by various recent incidents, such, for instance, as a plot of the "Black Liberation Front" to blow up the statue of Liberty and other national monuments. This plan was foiled by the agents of the FBI and New York police on February 16, 1965; the plotters were arrested and later convicted by a federal court.

"The FBI also investigates activities of such organizations as Ku Klux Klan and other organizations inciting hatreds, when they call for violence or incite to violence or use of force in order to deprive others of their constitutional rights. A number of such hatred groups and 14 Ku Klux Klan organizations are now carefully investigated in view of violence and lawlessness to which they resorted in the past. It is supposed that at the end of the fiscal year a number of Ku Klux Klan members approached 10,000 and, according to reports, is growing."

The following information was supplied by a source which has furnished reliable information in the past.

The Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), maintains in Moscow, Russia, a relatively new and modern hotel known as the Central Committee Hotel for the housing of leading representatives of various fraternal parties who are in Moscow for official consultations with officials of the CPSU. The hotel is a multistoried building complete with all necessary service establishments.

While most of the guests staying at the Central Committee Hotel are there under relatively open conditions, the hotel does house from time to time a number of guests who are in Moscow covertly. In the latter case, the hotel can adequately take care of all needs of such individuals. In such cases everything, including food, is normally brought to the individual's private room. When the CPSU officials desire to meet with these covert guests, the CPSU officials are brought to the hotel where meetings can be held with utmost security in one of its various rooms. If the situation is such that the guests must leave the hotel, service elevators and basement exits are available which enable such persons to leave the hotel unseen.

At the present time, the administrator of the Central Committee Hotel is one Edward (last name unknown), who speaks perfect Chinese but has rather limited ability with the English language.

Major newspapers are brought to the hotel on a daily basis together with translations by a uniformed security representative of the Central Committee. This material is made available for the benefit of the hotel guests.

In the past, it had been possible to locate a guest residing in the hotel by a call to the central switchboard and guest register it maintained. This is no longer possible. At the present time, telephone numbers and names of guests are no longer obtainable through a central switchboard. In order to talk to anyone in the hotel, you must possess beforehand a telephone number and directly dial that individual's room.

REIMBURSEMENT FROM COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION TO COMMUNIST PARTY, USA FOR FARES PAID IN 1965

During late October and early November, 1965, a series of discussions was held with representatives of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), which included such individuals as Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, and his assistant, Igor Mikhailov, regarding the matter of reimbursement to the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) of monies which it had spent on fares for individuals from the United States who had visited the USSR as members of official delegations and groups. Altogether, reimbursement was requested for all or part of the fares paid by the CP, USA on behalf of some 48 individuals who had been to the Soviet Union since April, 1965. This included delegations for May 1st and November 7th as well as CP, USA youth delegations, etc. Based on the negotiations which were carried out at this time, the CPSU in early November, 1965, turned over a sum of money totaling $21,176.00, consisting of U.S. currency. Included in this were part fares for Gertrudis Melendez, of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico, who had gone to the World Peace Council meeting in Helsinki, Finland; Claude Lightfoot, who had gone to Prague, Czechoslovakia, as a delegate to a "World Marxist Review" conference, and his wife Joyce; Carl Winter and Anthony Krchmarek and wife, who had gone to Bucharest, Romania, for the Communist Party of Romania Congress. All of these individuals then proceeded to the Soviet Union. Upon payment of the foregoing amount, the CPSU indicated that this settlement represented complete and final reimbursement for all fares expended by the CP, USA in 1965.

In discussions regarding future official travel to the USSR from the United States by CP, USA members, these representatives of the International Department made it clear that in 1966 there would not be anywhere near the number of persons visiting in 1965 that would be invited for 1966. In fact, it was pointed out that it was not certain at this time whether they would be able to extend two-thirds or even one-half of the invitations provided in 1965 for the year 1966. However, whatever number of invitations is decided upon and budgeted for in 1966 will be made known to the CP, USA in the near future. They also agreed at this time that because of certain problems which had arisen in 1965, that they would not again refer to the total number of invitees as a quota for the CP, USA. When discussing the decreased number of invitations which will be available in 1966, these individuals indicated that the basic reason for it was a lack of the provision of money for such travel in their budget. At the same time, however, they noted that in certain special situations where the CP, USA wanted to send certain people to the USSR and had good reasons, they should communicate with the CPSU beforehand and then the CPSU would give consideration to their request and probably would be able to arrange the desired invitation for them.

It was further noted by these representatives of the International Department that for next year, 1966, the CPSU will not consider, under any condition, claims for reimbursement for expenses other than actual transportation costs. They pointed out that when these people visit the USSR there are no such additional expenses and that they take care of all needs of these people while in the country.

Set forth below is the pertinent data which appeared on the above-noted $21,176.00 of U.S. currency provided to the CP, USA:

ReCGairtel dated November 18, 1965, and Bulet dated December 3, 1965.

CGairtel forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for translation several pages in the Russian language furnished by CG 5824-S* which had been given to the source by MIKHAIL SUSLOV, Secretary, Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union. Bulet furnished a verbatim translation of this material.

A review of the translation furnished by the Bureau discloses that it consists almost in its entirety of quotations from the Annual Report of the Director of the FBI, J. EDGAR HOOVER. Therefore, the Chicago Office is not including this information in any communication for dissemination.

NOTE:

In connection with the Solo case, we maintain a cover office at 17 Battery Place, New York City, where important messages are prepared and exchanged by NY 694-S*. This cover is vital to the success of the operation and has proved to be a definite asset. To maintain this office, we must operate as any other tenant in the building and contribute to the Christmas Fund of the building employees. To do otherwise would cause talk and suspicion and undue interest in the activities of this office which would be detrimental to our operation.

The NYO is in receipt of a letter from the Sheraton Whitehall Corporation, owners of the building at 17 Battery Place, NYC, where a cover office is maintained by the NYO. Said communication reflected that it is expected that all tenants of the building will contribute to the Sheraton Whitehall Building Employees' Christmas Fund.

Upon consultation with Mr. [redacted] Manager of the Sheraton Whitehall Corporation, it was ascertained that with respect to an office such as is maintained by the NYO, the usual contribution to the aforesaid fund is $25.00. Since the NYO feels that it is necessary to maintain good relations with the Sheraton Whitehall Corporation, it is requested that the Bureau authorize the payment of $25.00 by the NYO to the Sheraton Whitehall Building Employees' Christmas Fund.

In the attached letter, SAC, New York, advised that unless advised to the contrary, Special Agent George Edwin Jones would replace Special Agent John Dennis O'Connell as the alternate Agent in handling NY 694-S*, effective upon the retirement of Special Agent O'Connell on 12/30/65.

SAC noted that Special Agent Jones, who has been an Agent since 1951, has a thorough knowledge of the communist picture plus a retentive memory which is so helpful in the Solo operation. Special Agent Jones, who formerly served as the alternate Agent for NY 694-S*, was removed from that assignment at his own request in May, 1963, following a stroke. SAC advised that Special Agent Jones' health has now improved to a point where his health would not be affected by this assignment. SAC further noted that NY 694-S*, who at times is difficult to handle, has always enjoyed a pleasant relationship with Special Agent Jones.

OBSERVATIONS:

Special Agent Jones is presently on limited duty and has been on limited duty since May, 1963, when he suffered a stroke which affected his speech, heart, and oxygen supply. He is presently receiving medication in the form of anti-coagulants.

The Solo operation, which is of inestimable value, requires the contacting and alternate contacting Agents for NY 694-S* to work as a team devoting a great deal of their personal time, including nights and weekends, to the many problems which arise in the handling and guidance of NY 694-S* and informant's activities. In view of the rigors of this assignment, it is not deemed judicious to utilize an Agent with the type of health problem which Special Agent Jones has.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter be sent to New York advising that Special Agent Jones should not be used as the alternate contacting Agent for NY 694-S*.

Reurlet 12/2/65.

Relet stated that UACB, SA George Edwin Jones would replace SA John Dennis O'Connell as the alternate Agent for NY 694-S* effective upon SA O'Connell's retirement on 12/30/65.

As your office is aware, the Solo operation requires that the contacting and alternate Agents work largely as a team in devoting a great deal of their personal time, including nights and weekends, to the many problems which arise in the handling and guidance of NY 694-S* and informant's activities. While SA Jones on the basis of his experience appears to possess the necessary qualifications for this assignment, it is noted that he is presently on limited duty and receiving medication in the form of anti-coagulants. In view of the rigors of this assignment, it is not deemed judicious to utilize an Agent with the type of health problem which SA Jones has.

In view of the foregoing, SA Jones is not approved as the alternate Agent for NY 694-S*. Your office should promptly submit recommendations for the use of another Agent as the alternate Agent for NY 694-S*.

As the Bureau is aware, SA JOHN DENNIS O'CONNELL has been the alternate agent in handling NY 694-S*. Reference is being made to SA O'CONNELL'S letter of 12/1/65 to the Bureau at which time he submitted his application for retirement, effective 12/30/65. It will now be necessary to designate another alternate agent.

In connection with the designation of an alternate, various factors must be taken into consideration. This office feels that the SOLO operation, as well as the activities of the informant in general, is one of the most important aspects of the work being handled in the NYO. Realizing the significance of this operation, extreme caution must be exercised in choosing the agent to act as the alternate. It is felt that handling one of the most important operations in the Bureau deserves the assignment of one of the most outstanding agents in this office and to do otherwise would be doing the Bureau an injustice. In addition, and if at all possible, it is also most important that an agent be designated who has the ability and personality to get along with NY 694-S*. The Bureau is well aware of the fact that at times NY 694-S* can be most difficult to handle. Taking all these matters under consideration, I have concluded that SA GEORGE EDWIN JONES is the proper man for that assignment.

SA JONES has been in the Bureau since 1/29/51 and in the NYO since 3/30/55. Much of his work has been in the security field. This agent has proved himself to be one of the most capable agents in the Bureau. He has a thorough knowledge of the Communist picture and, in addition, has a type of retentive memory, especially involving individuals, which is so helpful in the SOLO operation.

For some period of time and up to the middle of 1963, SA JONES was the alternate agent in handling this informant. He was removed at his own request because of a stroke. Since that time his health has steadily improved to a point where his health would not be affected by his assignment. Of great importance in connection with this designation is that the informant took a great liking to SA JONES and as a result a very close relationship was developed. He was always extremely pleased and satisfied with his relationship with SA JONES and, in fact, has on many occasions since his removal from that position contacted SA JONES in order to converse with him. It is certain that this informant will be extremely elated when told that SA JONES has been picked as one of his contacting agents.

Therefore, UACB, SA JONES has been designated as the alternate agent to work with SA ALEXANDER C. BURLINSON in handling NY 694-S*.

"Dear Michael: (pseudonym for CG 5824-S*)

"Thanks for your brief note. The lad (representative from the CP, USA to discuss joint CP, USA-CPC School; probably Hy Lumer) came and left. I gave him a place to communicate (new drop address for CPC) which I am sure he will pass on. Bearing that in mind don't send anymore notes where you sent this one (last note sent to Kashtan in care of his daughter, Sue Klayman, 2700 Bathurst St., Apt. 507, Toronto, Ontario, Canada). Apart from the above we are beginning to enter the pre-xmas lull altho there are all sorts of matters requiring our attention including preparations for our national do (CPC National Convention). I suppose you too, are in a somewhat similar position, perhaps more so with escalators (reference to people in US who favor escalating the war in Vietnam) floating all over the place.

"As soon as our group (CPC delegation in USSR for 11/7/65 celebration) returns will advise you - probably in two weeks time.

CG 5824-S* advised that he has no idea why the drop address in Canada is being changed but may see LUMER in New York City this week end at which time he may determine from LUMER whether KASHTAN gave any reason for the change. At that time, also, CG 5824-S* will obtain from LUMER the new drop address.

Pertinent information contained herein will be disseminated to the appropriate field office by separate communication with the necessary caution statement.
